

Date: Ramadan 1432(AH)

Corresponding to: August 2011 (AD)

Your Majesty Sultan Qaboos bin Saeed, May Allah guard and support you with His care
May the Peace, Mercy and Blessings of Allah be upon you

Subject: Eid Al-Fitr Sermon of 1432 (AH)

By the whiffs of the last ten days of the Holy Month of Ramadan, and the prospects of coming Eid Al-Fitr, we Pray Allah, the Almighty, to keep the seasons of blessings and to bestow you the best of gifts, and to return these events to you while you are in pride, glory and empowerment. I have the honor to extend my congratulations and compliments on these great events to present to your majesty the proposed sermon of Eid Al-Fitr to consult your wisdom, and to seek your sound directions. May Allah Guard you.

The sermon addresses the value system in religion. This system in three pillars; namely: work ethics and consideration, doing virtue, adopting the apparent deeds in trilogy with dimensions that expand to deal with the world around us, and the relation between peoples and nations, and self-knowledge in fulfillment of duties before seeking rights.

I pray Allah, the Almighty, that you succeed in what you like and what satisfies Allah, and to be successful on the path of virtue, and to guard you with his every awaking eye and you in good health and long life.

With all due respect and appreciation,

May Allah's peace and blessings be upon you,